

Jonelle Bobak, a graduate of Draughn High School and a two-year student at Western Piedmont Community College, was awarded the Harry L. Hallyburton Scholarship to further her education at Gardner Webb University. Jonelle desires to earn a communications degree with which she can obtain a career with a newspaper or a Christian radio station.