

Mathew Cook, a graduate of Burke Middle College, was awarded the Waldensian Presbyterian Women Scholarship to aid in his future education at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. Mathew possesses passions for film directing, producing, and teaching, one of which he will pursue a career in.

